Compass has announced its 2017-2018 round of nonprofit clients.

The local branch of the national organization connects business professionals to nonprofits (<http://generocity.org/philly/2016/09/01/compasss-work-behalf-local-nonprofits-will-worth-3-7m-may/>) looking for help in board development, funding strategy, strategic partnerships and collaborations, and strategic alignment.

Each of the 16 nonprofits selected will receive about $150,000-worth of services. Last year's nonprofit cohort included (<http://compassprobono.org/projects/2016-17-greater-philadelphia-classic-project-roster/>) Broad Street Ministry, Center for Literacy and Nationalities Services Center. This year's cohort kicks off Sept. 28 and includes the following nonprofits (<http://compassprobono.org/projects/2017-18-greater-philadelphia-classic-project-roster/>), with their consulting focus:
